

Touching the World Through Reiki

Tuesday, November 22nd 7-8:30pm

Alexandria II Bookstore 170 S Lake Ave Pasadena, CA 91101

Are you a Reiki practitioner seeking ways to take your practice into the mainstream?

If you've ever wanted the tools to expand your Reiki practice into the mainstream, you'll want to attend this talk!

In this presentation, and book signing you'll learn:

- What are mainstream settings
  - How to approach them
  - How to use your strengths
  - The art of being prepared
- Considerations for working in medical environments
- Considerations for working with veterans, elderly, children
  - The logistics of the outreach
  - Taking Reiki into the environment
- How to connect with the local community
- How to tap into the entertainment industry
  - How to facilitate Reiki Circles

Eileen Dey, M.A., LMHC is a licensed mental health counselor and Reiki master in private practice in Seattle. She has worked in the human services field for over 15 years in non-profit, academic and corporate settings. She directs the only WA state certified vocational school of Reiki which has a 150 hour certified Reiki Practitioner and Master Training Program in Seattle, Spokane and Santa Monica. Eileen is the author of Touching the World Through Reiki and completed 20,000 miles of her round-the-world book tour.

For further details please visit:

www.reikitrainingprogram.com

